CALL TO ORDER

Mayor Brundige called the December 4, 2006 Special Called City Board Meeting to order.

SWEARING-IN OF MAYOR RANDY BRUNDIGE, ALDERMAN BILL HARRISON, ALDERMAN DAVID BELOTE, AND ALDERMAN-ELECT TERRY HANKINS

City Judge Lang Unger administered the oath of office to Alderman Bill Harrison, Alderman David Belote, and Alderman-elect Terry Hankins:

Judge Unger spoke – “Will all three of you stand and raise your right hand please, if you’ll repeat after me;

“I do solemnly swear or affirm (repeat) that I will faithfully perform (repeat) the duties of the office (repeat) to which I have been elected (repeat) and which I am about to assume (repeat). I do solemnly swear (repeat) to support the constitution (repeat) of Tennessee and the United States (repeat) and to faithfully perform (repeat) the duties of alderman (repeat) for the City of Martin (repeat), so help me God (repeat).”

Minutes: City of Martin Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Swearing In Ceremony, December 4, 2006

Judge Unger then administered the oath of office to Mayor Randy Brundige:

Judge Unger spoke – “I would also like the pleasure to swear-in Mayor Brundige for another term. Mayor, if you will raise your right hand and repeat after me please;

“I do solemnly swear or affirm (repeat) that I will faithfully perform (repeat) the duties of the office (repeat) to which I have been elected (repeat) and which I am about to assume (repeat). I do solemnly swear (repeat) to support the constitution (repeat) of Tennessee and the United States (repeat) and to faithfully perform (repeat) the duties of Mayor (repeat) for the City of Martin (repeat), so help me God (repeat).”
